run of depositors to witadraw money at the main office of the Knakerbocker Trust company when it opened for business Tuesday morning and also at the branch offices of the contpany at 66 Broadway and in 125th street.

At the main office there were about 75 persons in line and others were constantly arriving. Many of those who came to withdraw their money were women.

At 66 Broadway there was considerable excitement when the offices opened for business. A line of about 50 persons had gathered and made their way to the paying teller's window to withdraw funds.

A Fox Hunt.

Sheriff Fennell, next to hunting crimmals, has his heart set on a fox hunt. He wants to be hunting something all the time, with the result that he is continually in the saddle.

A number of the young people of this city were desirous of having a genuine "good time" in the woods Tuesday night, and decided on a fox hunt, with Sheriff Fennell, who consented to lead the chase.

The party left the city early in the sky, were Monday release evening. They went in a southwesterly direction, and when near Millard arrest, which they say Station, about two miles from the Miss Alma, of Santa Fe, were visiting city, struck a trail.
